

"Let's Go Native" Theme Of Polynesian Luau Feast

"SHEENA OF THE JUNGLE"

"Let's Go Native At A Luau" is the theme of the native feast and festival to be presented by The Polynesian Restaurant on Sunday, Aug. 16, to which the public is invited by advance reservation.

Irish McCalla, better known to TV fans as "Sheena, Queen of the Jungle," will appear as a special dancing attraction on the entertainment program. Featured will be Tani Marsh, "The Polynesian" and many artists from the South Pacific.

What will set this luau apart from others held at the exotic tropical restaurant is the new low-price of $7.50 per person, a policy just initiated by Pete Reitz, owner of The Polynesian and producer of its outdoor pageants.

The colorful feast will begin at 2 p.m., and for the first hour there will be "open bar" at the Samoan hospitality hut. Authentically prepared foods-of-the-islands will be served during the day-long festivities.

COAL CONSUMPTION
The U.S. uses about 500 million tons of coal a year.

LYNN DAVIS... Fresh from hit appearances at the Dunes, Royal Nevada and other Las Vegas spots as well as Harrah's club at Tahoe and the Hotel Mapes in Reno, opens tomorrow at Bowl-O-Drome, with Don Kemp at the piano and Bob Pulver, base, providing the accompaniment.

Three Guess Tie in Bank Chest Game

Three Torrance residents tied for first place winnings in a "treasure chest" contest at Bank of America's new Sepulveda-Hawthorne branch in Torrance, it was announced this week by Manager Verne L. Hughes.

Visitors to the branch for the past two weeks were asked to guess how many candy gold coins were in the pirate's treasure chest on display in the lobby.

Jimmy Sunsted of 22318 Marjorie St.; Carola J. Dealorio of 22314 Ward St., and Gaylord S. Toiry, 4527 Newton St., won $50 savings accounts with their guesses of 1872 gold coins. The actual total was 1865.

Other Torrance savings account winners were: John Willems of 1717 Greenwood Ave., $25; A. E. Roberts of 21913 Ladeene Ave., $10; Leonard Pekarick of 3530 W. 224th St., $10; Joan H. Smith of 21617 Palos Verdes Blvd., $10; and Helen L. Angelas of 22515 Anza Ave., $10.

Three $5 account winners in the contest, which closed July 31, were: Janet Daum and W. H. Evans of Torrance, and Bill Rudesill of Redondo Beach.

Torrance Hosts SCMAF Tourney

Torrance will host the 1959 Southern California Slo-pitch championship tournament beginning on Aug. 21, according to Elmer "Red" Moon, athletic director for the city of Torrance Recreation Department.

The tourney is expected to draw teams from all over the Southern California area. Torrance, the starting point of the movement for slo-pitch softball in Southern California, is acting as the host city for the first time in the SCMAF history. Several teams from the local area have already indicated a desire to enter the tourney. All other teams who wish to enter should contact Moon at the Recreation office.
